SILVERSMITHING

Where: Crested Butte Center of the Arts
When: September 6 - 8, 2017
Price: $375
Description: Silver smithing is the process of shaping and modifying precious metal. Join Rachel Van Slyke to learn and practice the techniques of cutting, forming, polishing and the manipulation of metal to create jewelry. The three-day course covers essential concepts of metal smithing such as basic cutting, sawing, filing, piercing and the application of heat to shape and harden metal. You will work with a selection of silver and gold. Students are encouraged to bring their own ideas and designs. Children 12 and older are welcome. Space is limited. Please register by July 1, 2017.

CULINARY & VINTER ARTS
Sheet Pan Dinners: Thursday, September 14. 5:30 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. $65
Dinner doesn’t have to take 10 bowls and three hours to make. Spend an evening and learn some quick and flavorful weeknight dinners. Cooking everything on a sheet pan means less prep and less cleaning so you can make time for you and your family. Prepare and cook: Salmon Provencal with Roasted Tomatoes and Fingerling Potatoes, Dijon Rosemary Chicken Thighs with Maple-Glazed Pumpkin and Chicken Tikka with Rice and Cauliflower. Instructor: Luiza Naughton. 11:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. in Crested Butte; (970) 349-7044; melissa@crestedsbuttearts.org.

MARY TUCK & LAURA ELM – “BIRDS OF A FEATHER”
Long regarded as symbols of the human psyche, birds are a recurrent theme in the imagery of Laura Elm and Mary Tuck. In their new exhibition, Abstracts and Birds of a Feather, Mary Tuck loves, and she has combined them for this colorful, whimsical joint show. Executed on canvas, paper, rocks, wood and silver jewelry, there is something to delight everyone! Meant to tickle your fancy and dance subliminally among the edge of thoughts where reveries, dreams and memories meld together, Laura’s metaphorical compositions depicted on clay, canvas and in print intuitively entwine bits of reality with a sensibility that carries forward the prevailing essence of soul. Show runs through December 15. Artist Reception: Friday, September 22 during ArtWalk. 5:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. Fine Art Studio Gallery, www.crestedsbuttearts.org; 970-349-7487.
